

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wright Joins Trillium Springs Counseling Center

ATLANTA, Georgia (Oct. 1, 2009) – Pamela Wright, Ph.D., has joined Trillium Springs Counseling Center.

“We are delighted Pam Wright has joined our team. Her many years of experience as a counselor and with psychological and educational testing will be of significant benefit to our clients,” said Trillium Springs Counseling founder and director Vilda S. Brannen, M.A., NCC, LPC. Wright is a licensed psychologist with more than 10 years of experience working with adults, adolescents, and children.

She received her doctorate degree in Counseling Psychology from Georgia State University and her undergraduate degree from the University of Georgia.

Wright currently provides counseling services along with psychological assessment and testing. Her testing services include educational, ADHD, and personality assessments.

Wright has worked at several university and hospital settings, including: Ridgeview Institute, The Anxiety and Stress Management Institute, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Georgia State University Counseling Center, Scottish Rite Hospital, Atlanta Medical Center, and Emory/Grady Infectious Disease Pediatric Program. She continues to work as an adjunct professor at Argosy University in Atlanta.

For more information, please contact Wright by email at pam@trilliumsprings.com or call her at 404.664.5797.

About Trillium Springs, LLC. We offer counseling in a variety of specialties as well as psychological, educational / achievement, and behavioral testing and evaluation through Trillium Springs Counseling. We also host day, weekend or weeklong retreats at our facility, Trillium Springs Retreat Center, in western North Carolina.

###