Gruber Joins Trillium Springs Counseling Center

ATLANTA, Georgia (Mar. 1, 2010) – Robyn S. Gruber, M.A., LPC has joined Trillium Springs Counseling Center.

“We are delighted that Robyn has joined our therapeutic team. Her experience treating trauma will be of significant importance to our clients,” said Trillium Springs Counseling founder and director Vilda S. Brannen, M.A., NCC, LPC.

Robyn is a Licensed Professional Counselor specializing in resolving trauma of all types. Whether the wound is from childhood, a current or previous relationship or any type of life-altering loss, Robyn is skilled at helping adults heal from the wounds they have experienced so that they no longer experience the ongoing effects of those wound in their daily lives. She believes that the future is not determined by the past and anyone willing to walk through the grief required for healing, can and will heal and recover. Rather than treating symptoms, Robyn focuses on getting to the source of the problem and resolving the core issues, resulting in the alleviation of troubling symptoms and transformation that seemed impossible to achieve.

Robyn received a Bachelor of Fine Arts for the University of Oklahoma with a secondary emphasis in communication. She then received Masters of Arts degrees in Marriage and Family Counseling and in Religious Education from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has specialized training in Critical Incident Stress Management and is certified in Trauma Resolution Therapy.

Robyn has provided individual counseling services at the YWCA of Monroe, Louisiana. While in Louisiana, she also provided in-home family therapy for parents and children who were clients of the Department of Child Protective Services. Most recently, she served as the Director of the Counseling Ministry at Johnson Ferry Baptist Church. She has provided educational programs for many groups, facilitated many support groups, supervised counseling interns and facilitated numerous Trauma Resolution Therapy groups.

Robyn is a Licensed Professional Counselor in both Georgia (#4847) and Nebraska. She holds memberships in the American Association of Christian Counselors and the Licensed Professional Counselors Association of Georgia.
